Prices in Becond Annus Ed by Boys' and Girls' Agriat Drooklyn Fair.

Last week was doubly eventful to the Bdys' and Girls' Agricultural club of Westminster. Monday occurred their second annual local exhibit in which fourteen of the seventeen mem-bers took part. State Supt. A. J. Brundage and County Supt. Ellis of Boys' and Girls' work were expected as guests and to speak and the ab-sence of the former and delay in arsence of the former and delay in arrival of the latter, who was unavoidably hindered, coming as the awards were being concluded, was the only hitch in the programme. Mr. Davies spoke on the evident gain made by the club during their second year and need for even greater diligence the coming year, both for their own members and as a part of Uncle Sam's food producing army. The exhibit included also a food display of canned fruits and vegetables and sewing.

Mrs. Baldwin has hed to ome of her daughter in Harwinton for Knight and Mrs. Howard Penrose o Hartford accompanied by their guests.

Misses Agnes and Bertha Crane of Elizabeth, N. J., were at Hillside farm
Monday, guests of Miss Mersereau.

Howard Bligh is much disappointed that after enlistment in both mavy and army he was found to be physically in-competent for service. He has been taking his mother, sister and aunt on an auto tour. The party was at Hill-side farm Monday, on their way from the Berkshires to Boston.

The Real Cause.

There is nothing in the attack on American sailors in Cork Sunday night. The Yankee tars "copped" and the Irish boys got mad.—Portland Oregonian.

The Tuesday evening meeting was omitted, the pastor and some of the people being at the Associational meeting at Warrenville.

The first Sunday in October church services will be held in the forenoon ledo Blade.

Open to All.

About the only opportunity open to the man who doesn't know much about anything is the field of criticism.—To-ledo Blade.
